CINTIA CARACUSHANSKY

*English * Spanish * Portuguese translator, proofreader, editor, subtitling, interpreter*

I am an experienced freelancer translator thoroughly working for agencies/clients in huge and medium projects aimed to amplify world renown organizations, projects, enterprises' mission. Manage full-time on-line to rapidly answer clients' requests and queries; translate for those who are willing to broaden the marketing of their products to several parts of the world.

Consistency is relevant all the way through the translation to give a profound understanding of original product. Also, dedicate myself to translate a variety of legal documents needed on business relationships. To transmit or get the acknowledgement of any documentation of a new/updated product and intricacies of their technological and mechanic traits.

Other times, focus is mostly in localization for the target audience, that is the Brazilian Portuguese, or Spanish, or English audience, and bringing exposure to major publics.

In the sake of better communication between translator and collaborators, I am compromised to inform clients when, for any reason, my work extends more than expected (which sometimes happens for the sake of perfection!)

I'm proficient and able to handle translations of hundreds of words using translation CAT tools as SDL Trados 2015, Wordfast, MemSource, MemoQ, Microsoft Localization tools (Helium & LocStudio), Idiom, Subtitler Workshop, or any other translation platform. Use the TermBase for creating a glossary of a specific translation and ApSIC XBench for getting a QA feedback to deliver a translation free of errors.

From each work, I may compile a glossary of specific terminology under client's request. Additionally, CAT (computer-aided translation) tools allow maintaining original formatting of any document, which is especially helpful for great manuals presenting product designs, instructions, documentation, and contracts.

Also offer services of edition and proofreading.

Feel free to contact me at any time via email: hicintia@hotmail.com or cintiatrans@gmail.com
